

A black and white illustration of the National Congress building in Washington, D.C. The building is a large, classical-style structure with a prominent portico supported by several tall columns. The roof is flat, and there are decorative elements above the entrance. In the foreground, a wide, snow-covered street is filled with people on horseback and a horse-drawn carriage. The scene is set in a winter environment, with snow covering the ground and rooftops. The illustration is detailed, showing the texture of the snow and the clothing of the people.
